

Industrial Maintenance Technician Job Responsibilities:

Analyze test results, machine error messages, or information obtained from operators to diagnose equipment problems.

Clean, lubricate, or adjust parts, equipment, or machinery.

Cut and weld metal to repair broken metal parts, fabricate new parts, or assemble new equipment.

Examine parts for defects, such as breakage or excessive wear.

Observe and test the operation of machinery or equipment to diagnose malfunctions, using voltmeters or other testing devices.

Operate newly repaired machinery or equipment to verify the adequacy of repairs.

Reassemble equipment after completion of inspections, testing, or repairs.

Record repairs and maintenance performed. Record parts or materials used and order or requisition new parts or materials as necessary.

Repair or replace broken or malfunctioning components of machinery or equipment.

Assemble and install new equipment/machinery as needed.

Maintain/repair/modify building electrical wiring systems and electrical panels as needed.

Maintain/repair furnaces and install new gas lines as needed.

Perform plumbing installations and repairs as needed.

Maintain/repair air compressors and supply lines.

Maintain/repair fork lifts and other plant equipment such as hoists, digital readouts and scales, band saws, ventilation equipment.

Work Hours and Benefits Work schedule is Monday – Friday 6:30 am – 4:00 pm, 45 hours per week. Minimum starting pay is $21/hr, pay based on experience.

2 weeks paid vacation at start of employment.

Concor offers an excellent benefits package including health, dental, short term disability and life insurance, 10 paid holidays per year, 401K plan with employer match.

Industrial Maintenance Technician Qualifications and Skills

- Ability to operate machinery and technical equipment
- In-depth knowledge of system maintenance
- Ability to lift and move heavy equipment
- Familiarity with safety standards and regulations
- Skilled in analyzing information
- Knowledge of electricity/electrical systems, plumbing, hydraulics, pneumatics, HVAC, welding, fabrication, PLC's.

Education and Experience Requirements

High school diploma and 5 years experience working as a maintenance technician is preferred. Must have own tools.

Apply for this position by emailing a resume to ellentownsend@concordtool.com, calling 715-462-3756, or stopping by to pick up an application.

Concor Tool & Machine, Inc.
9665 N Concor Rd
Hayward, WI 54843